Translation of the First ODE of SIKH'S TRADITIONAL PRAYER
by the Tenth Prophet

One Eternal All - Pervading God,
Victory of Him

May God Bless with His Support

Having first remembered God the Almighty, think of Guru Nanak;

Then of Angad Guru, Amar Das, and Ram Das; may they help us!
Remember Arjin, Hargobind and the holy Har Rai.

Let us think of holy Har Krishan whose sight dispels all sorrow.
Let us remember Teg Bahadur, and the nine Treasures shall come hastening to our homes.

May they all assist us everywhere!

May the tenth Guru, Guru Gobind Singh the protector of the faith, assist us everywhere!

May Guru Granth Sahib (Sikh Holy Scripture), the Eternal Light, assist us everywhere!

Turning our attention towards the teaching of Guru Granth Sahib, O Khalso, call on God!

WAHEGURU!

(WONDERFUL LORD!)

O OUR Almighty, All-Pervading and Eternal God;
"To Thee, we pray, O Lord; Thou art our True Master; Thou art our Protector ever; we dwell upon Thee."

Men and women of all faiths have gathered together to celebrate the 300th Anniversary of Guru Granth Sahib, and pray for world peace.

Save us all, O Father, from Lust, Anger, Greed, Attachment and Pride; and keep us always attached to thy Feet. Bless us all with the eyes of the Mind to see you present in all human beings and enable us to love you and pay due respect to all without any discrimination on the basis of race, religion, creed, sex, color, etc. You judge human beings, O Lord, by their deeds and we beseech Your assistance and blessings in that regard. With full faith in You, O God-Guru, we bow before you repeating Nanak's words:

"Nanak Naam charhdee kalaa, tere bhaane sarbatt daa bhalaa."

"May Thy name forever be on the ascendancy, and all human beings prosper with Thy Grace."
